

Path to FREEDOM

The Path to Freedom program helps young people from CALD backgrounds living with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) and/or a Psychosocial Disability, build leadership and resilience skills, engage in community activities and pursue career & financial goals through exciting learning programs.

Skills
Development

Community Connection

Make New Friends

Career
Growth

Case
Management

Ongoing Support

Journey towards participation, empowerment & personal growth.

Eligibility

- Young Person aged 11-21 years
- CALD Background
- Living with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) and/or a Psychosocial Disability
- Residing in the Liverpool, Blacktown or Campbelltown LGA
- NDIS Funding not required to participate

Scan here to register

Path to FREEDOM ROAD MAP

Funded by the Australian Government Department of Social Services

01

Onboarding

Young Person and their families are onboarded on to the program.

02

Co-Design Session

Co-design activities that align with their goals and preferences.

3.1

Skill Building

Participants experience growth, building mental resilience, essential skills, and a positive mindset.

3.2

Empowerment

Participants engage in workshops on financial literacy, career goals, or entrepreneurship, based on their age.

3.3

Community Participation

Participants plan, run, and participate in community advocacy, wellness, or sports activities.

04

Graduation

The final stage marks the programs end, celebrating participants' growth and accomplishments

05

Ongoing Support

Participants can choose to continue the project with personalised 1:1 support.

Scan here to register

